June 24th, 1919

Professor S. J. Alexander,
University College.

Dear Professor Alexander:

I am directed by the President to ask you if Mr. Clawson is to be paid for full-time work for the special classes for returned soldiers during June and July ? And is he alone in the Department of English to be paid ?

Yours sincerely,

President's Secretary.

Professor W. J. Alexander,

University College.

My dear Professor Alexander:

I am sending you a parcel that I received last night from Mr. Alfred Buckley about whom I wrote to you. You might let me have it back so that I may return it to him.

Yours sincerely,

President.
